Swan to perform at Ted's Montana Grill in Bozeman March 4, 2010

(Bozeman, Montana) – Heidi Swan's live performances have always been about her original music with a few cover songs thrown in for fun. Swan's March 4, 2010, performance at Ted's Montana Grill in Bozeman will, however, mark a first for her: covering one of her own songs currently being released by another artist. On March 9th, 2010, The Ramski's, an up and coming country duo from Nashville, will release "As Real As It Gets" on their new album "Lost in Your Eyes," on Lamon Records. but Swan will feature the song live in her show at Bozeman's Ted's Montana Grill, March, 4, 2010 starting at 7:00pm.

"Hearing someone else perform it was a surreal feeling," says Swan, reflecting on hearing the Ramski's rendition of "As Real As It Gets" for the first time. "But they stayed true to the song and did a beautiful job on it," Swan adds. After Swan's performance she will be flying to Nashville to perform with the Ramski's, who are sisters, for the showcase release party. "It will be fantastic to meet them in person," says Swan of the event. "We've spoken so many times over this last year, so reaching this point is a great accomplishment for all of us."
